

Caring for Your Historic Building

a FREE event for owners and occupiers of historic buildings
on Saturday 24 October 2009 at the People's Hall in Sedbergh

Providing you with an understanding of how your historic building works, how to spot problems early on, and using regular maintenance and repairs as a means of preventing major damage and decay

Programme

09:30 Arrival: tea & coffee

09:45 Welcome & structure for the day – Don McLellan, YDNPA.

Why Conserve?

10:00 Very Different to Modern Buildings – Jonathan Ratter, Historic Buildings Consultant.
→ Changes in construction methods and their implications

10:30 Principles of Conservation – Jonathan Ratter, Historic Buildings Consultant.
→ Historical attitudes to building conservation, what we value today, and how we protect it

11:00 Tea & coffee break

Repairs and Maintenance

11:15 Causes and Treatment of Damp – Elaine Blackett-Ord, Conservation Architect.
→ Poor ventilation, lack of maintenance, inappropriate materials, and rising damp

12:00 Stone Masonry Repairs – Elaine Blackett-Ord, Conservation Architect.
→ Basic repair methods, lime mortars, and the dangers of cement

12:45 Lunch break
→ No catering provided, but there are several pubs and cafes within 5-minute walking distance

Design Issues

13:45 Minimum Intervention – James Innerdale, Independent Conservation Architect.
→ Sympathetic design using historic features & materials, and what to avoid

14:30 Modern Solutions – James Innerdale, Independent Conservation Architect.
→ Making a contemporary statement through high-quality design

15:15 Tea & coffee break

Project Management

15:30 Running a Contract – James Innerdale, Independent Conservation Architect.
→ How to employ an architect to deal with applications, design and building regulations

16:15 Summary & questions – Don McLellan, YDNPA.

16:30 Close

Our ref: Caring for Your Historic Building – Saturday 24 October 2009, People's Hall, Sedbergh

Please contact us to reserve a place as there are only a limited number available!

Name: _____ Number of places required: _____

Email: _____ Daytime phone number: _____

Please reply to: Yorkshire Dales National Park Authority, FREEPOST RLZG-JARG-TXAK,
Conservation & Policy, Yoredale, Bainbridge, Leyburn, North Yorkshire, DL8 3EL

Or phone/email us: 01969 652354 or herinfo@yorkshiredales.org.uk

Caring for Your Historic Building

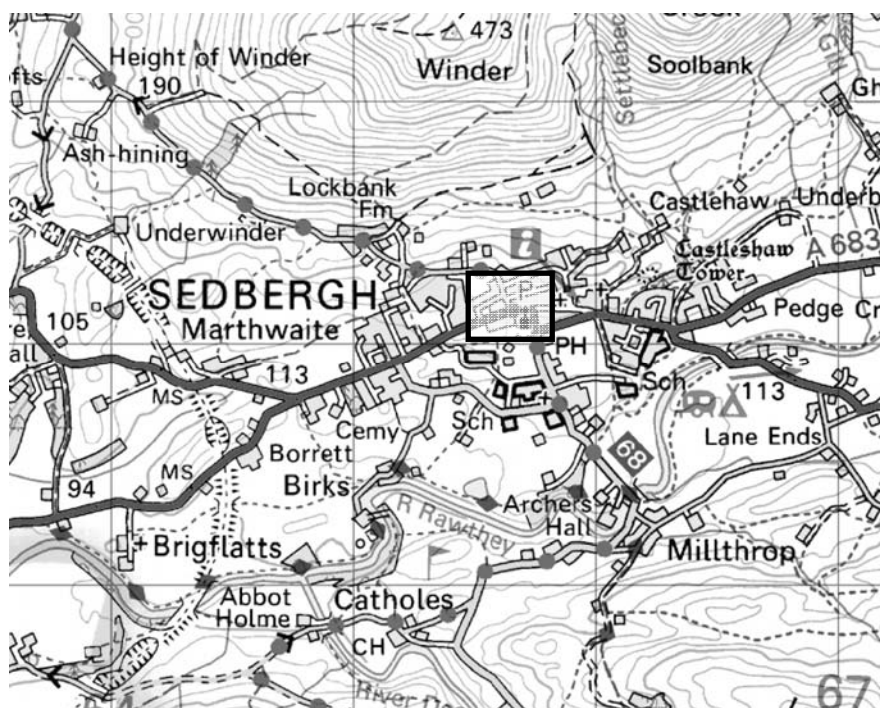

a FREE event for owners and occupiers of historic buildings
on Saturday 24 October 2009 at the People's Hall in Sedbergh

Providing you with an understanding of how your historic building works, how to spot problems early on, and using regular maintenance and repairs as means of preventing major damage and decay

Location

People's Hall

Howgill Lane
Sedbergh

Directions:

The People's Hall is located on Howgill Lane, next to the playing fields, a five-minute walk from Main Street and St Andrew's Church.

There is limited car parking available on site with further parking along the road.

The postcode for satellite navigation is LA10 5DE.

